(e) These are administrative and financial irregularities in appointments and use of funds.

(f) and (g) This is under active consideration of Government.

Imparting of Yoga Education in Primary and Middle schools in Delhi

1296. SHRI RAM NARESH YADAV: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a proposal under Government's consideration to introduce Yoga as a compulsory subject at primary and middle school levels and also to make it compulsory for all the students to perform yoga asans and yoga exercises in all the schools under the Delhi Administration and the NDMC; if so, the details thereof;

(b) whether Government propose to conduct the recruitment of yoga teachers for all the schools of Delhi both Government aided and under NDMC to impart yoga education to all school children so as to inculcate in them discipline and self control; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) No, Sir.

(b) and (c) Do not arise.

Surplus Teachers of Central Schools

1297. SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that about 450 teachers of different categories in Kendriya Vidyalayas have recently been rendered surplus;

(b) if so, the details thereof; Vidyalayawise and categorywise;

(c) whether the All India Kendriya Vidyalaya Teachers Association has submitted some suggestions to deal with this recurring problem; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and reaction of the Sangathan thereto?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) and (b) On account of increase|decrease in sections, upgradation of Kendriya Vidyalayas, opening of new Vidyalaya as etc., there is a continuous process where by, in individual Vidyalayas as some teachers are rendered surplus and vacancies in others are created. Considering the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan as whole, there is an overall deficit rather than surplus of teachers.

(c) and (d) Their main suggestion is that surplus teachers should be adjusted first before taking up the general transfers and that their choice for transiers should also be invited. This is being followed to the extent possible.

They have also suggested that intra-regional transfer should precede Inter-regional transfer to facilitate their adjustments. This is not consistent with the guidelines approved by the Board of Governors.

Repatriated Principals/Vice Principals of Central Schools from Navodaya Vidyalayas

1298. SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR SAHU: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor and by when they will be given postings; and

(c) where from they are being paid their salaries?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) to (c) Thirteen Principals|Vice-Principals of Kendriya Vidyalayas have, on repatriation from Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti and Central Tibeten Schools Administration, been posted as Officers-on-Special Duty at Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan Headquarters for the time being. Their salaries are accordingly being paid from Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan Headquarters.

Demand for Reduction in Timings in Central Schools

1299. SHRI ISH DUTT YADAV: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a demand for the reduction in timings in Kendriya Vidyalayas;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) what is the reaction of the Sangathan thereto?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. All India Kendriya Vidyalaya Teachers Association asked for reduction in school timings from 6 hours 10 minutes to 5 hours 30 minutes and introduction of five day week.

As per existing norms Kendriya Vidyalayas run for 5 hours 10 minutes in primary classes while classes VI and above work for 6 hours 10 minutes. The Kendriya Vidyalayas are closed on the second Saturday of every month.

In view of the time needed for coverage of curricular and co-curricular programmes it is not feasible to reduce the school timings and would not be in the interest of the students.
